The Three Others Mohammad Ali V

He finds himself alone in subway station and he is wearing mask which he doesn't know himself. He is all drenched due to the rain outside. The Light goes off and he is alone and scared. Suddenly a light starts blinking at a distance and sees three people sitting there. He goes to them as that is the only light there. He introduces himself as Mathew and they as little boy who is 6 years old, priest who is in late 20's and Zack who is in 30's. His nightmare starts when all three of them start blaming him for the crimes he has not done and when he finds out that he is wearing mask he freaks out. The little boy who one among the three people blames him for killing his father which he understands by getting into an imaginary world where he really kills his father.

Then the Priest takes him into an imaginary world blaming him for killing his friend. In the imaginary world he gets into gang war where it happens exactly what priest had said. He comes out of this imagination as well and goes through some of the scary things and then he finally understands that for him to get rid of that mask and get out of this situation he has to cooperate and understand what they are saying otherwise he is going to die. The he is taken by Zack to an unknown location in the platform which is nothing but endless platform. Then he finds himself alone left by Zack. He comes to situation where there is an accident and two people are killed in the accident.

He goes back to those three others and asks them what he has to do get out. For which he gets a solution, which is to kill any one of them. He Shoots Zack and gets out of the imagination he was having the whole time but then realizes that he still has the mask on his face. He goes to a address taking the train and finally reaches to a place which is nothing but little boys home. There for a shock he gets to know that all three of them are nothing but one person and there name is Zack Mathew Stones. Knowing the name he freaks out and rushes into cutting off the mask with scissors which he could not do before. When he cuts the mask he sees Zack in the mirror. He says ' I am Zack Mathew Stones' which ends up in breaking his world of imagination. He finally finds himself in hospital where it gets revealed that he has not spoken for 30 years. He is old and doctor reveals that he tried to kill himself with a gun which landed him in the hospital. There he sits thinking what he has done in his life.
