For Cherish, life isn't easy after her son is murdered by the hands of her father, and he gets away. She is hell bent on revenge, and making her father feel the pain that he caused. She won't stop at anything until he has taken his last breath. But, with a man like Tre, being a part of her father's demise won't be so easy.

Tre wants revenge just as bad as Cherish does, but he wants to be the one to handle it. But, unbeknownst to him, Cherish won't hear of no such thing. After a few secrets are revealed, finding Cherish's father won't be the only problem in their lives. Their love and loyalty is put to the ultimate test. Will they come out on top? Will the streets eat Cherish alive? Or will she find out that the streets raised her right?
