How The Sudduth Melting Pot Began Bettye Guillory

With no money, no editor & no publisher this 96 yr old great great grandmother had a mission, it was to leave a legacy to her family in the form of a book. Her intent is that other people will also read this book & be inspired to write about their own family history. There is an out -line included for those who wish to do so. The author i s gifted with the ability of remarkable recall for details. She is out spoken & leaves you wondering what she will say next. This book cuts back thru time to a heritage that evolved from the inner-racial marriage of 2 brothers to 2 sisters who dared to cross the color line barriers. The book revives sometimes forgotten stories, & reveals light on parts of a family history unknown to some. The authors mother wrote a booklet in 1935, it is included. It is powerfully anointed & is about how God used one lowly woman with 9 children to bring healing & transformation to many lives.
