Something Demonic Ashan Dias

After the mysterious death of his father, Ash, the second son of a demonologist, sets out to find justice. The nature of his father's work begins to come to light when he follows every clue that he finds. As one thing leads to another he finds the truth about his father's life and he realizes the sole purpose for his father's death was the past coming to haunt him. During a school spring-break, Ash and his older brother along with two childhood friends spent time together looking for what may have caused the unthinkable. For a high school teenager he was focused on finding answers, and not thinking what he might be risking or putting in harm's way. After Ash found what killed his father he can't be at peace because now the killer is after the remaining members of the family. The evil spirit strikes, sending a number of family members into a life and death situation. What must Ash do to save his family or does the young teenager really have a choice against this dark entity....
