After a year of recovering from his near fatal injuries, Jordan's brother drags him to an anti-Valentine's Day party at the Buck-n-Wild Cowboy Bar. There Jordan meets a man named Thomas. To his shock, Jordan can see the golden shape of a winged creature--the only image he's seen after twelve months in the dark.

Thomas Erotta, a matchmaking cupid, takes his newest hard luck case to the Buck-n-Wild Cowboy Bar to meet her true love. He expects she will leave with the man of her dreams, but Thomas never imagines he'll find a man of his own--and certainly not a blind human who can discern his true form. Their instant connection and intense attraction ignites a passion neither can resist. And it proves that love's arrow can pierce even Cupid's heart.
