Buying a house with no money down and even with bad credit, is easier than you think. You can still take advantage of the all time low mortgage rates even with terrible credit and no money to put down. I wrote this book because I went through the process a few months ago and if I could get a mortgage with absolutely no money down and with about as bad credit as one can get, I even filed for bankruptcy not long ago, then anybody can. I give detailed instructions on everything you will need and the exact process you take to get your mortgage and purchase your home with literally zero dollars out of your pocket, or borrowing from friends or families. I also tell you exactly who to contact in each state so you can follow the same process I did in your state, even Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. I never knew these programs existed and I want to share this information with you so you can buy a home no matter what financial situation you are in. It really is simple so get started today and take advantage of the mortgage rates at an all time low.
