A Wise Form Of Madness Jan Barry

This book was written as a Shakespearean type tragedy with a very modern twist. For it is a tale of two women who meet in a more than modern manor. It is a story of love, loves wonder and deception leading to classic, "love lost". This is not just another lesbian love story. It is a story that all can take personally. It is amusing and sad in the very same breath. Jace is quirky and happy in her solitude and interesting little life while Bailey is world wise and charming. The two crash head on and tumble into a very odd tho lovely romance.
