Poetry, in any which form, must be from the heart for the heart. To write from the heart is not so difficult, to aim for the heart of a many who are reading this is the challenge. Words have the power to bring about emotions in any which form. And through emotions we know that we are alive. Take in the words and find your hidden meaning and emotions. Not the one I put into it, but the one you take out of it. Feel alive.
