A Badge in his Pocket and a Banjo on His Knee Wm. Neill Little

When R. B. Hunter sets up shop as a new Private Investigator in the hills of East Tennessee, he discovers that his banjo-playing skills open the door to his first case. Before long, he uncovers a tangled web of embezzlement and murder involving one of the town's most prominent families. Has R. B. taken on more than he can handle? And is the task of figuring out his future - and an unexpected romance - any easier than cracking the case?
