When there's nothing left, there's always faith...

Faith finally meets a man who is nothing like her overbearing friends and family. He's dangerous, ripped, and doesn't treat her like a princess. He's trouble, and that's just what she's looking for. After a run in with her father, Faith and Eddie abandon wintery Colorado for sunny California. They don't have money, but they have a Harley and a gun.

Along the way, Faith is forced to grow up and embrace the dangerous life that will get them to their destination. When she learns a terrible secret, she must hide it from Eddie, even as he takes the fall for a bank robbery.

Can their love withstand the storm? Can it survive? Can they survive? Have faith...
