The follower of Christ must take advantage of every opportunity to be made ready to share the gospel with others. Effectiveness in evangelism is not dependent upon one's speaking ability or powers of persuasion. The witness' confidence must be in the gospel as the power of God to salvation to everyone who believes. The challenge for the Christian witness is that of mastering a clear presentation of the gospel, which reveals the righteousness, that comes by faith in Jesus Christ. It is to this end that this evangelistic manual was written. May it be a help to the many devout church leaders and Christian workers who desire to share their faith in a way that is effective and meaningful. May it also assist the many ministers of the gospel who desire to more effectively train church leaders and other members in the ministry of evangelism. The manual can be used most effectively as the guide to a seven-week training seminar on evangelism. The training format for each session is outlined. Other helpful materials are also included in the manual.
