The nightmares never stop.

Amanda escaped her abusive past, but old wounds never truly heal. They scar.

Meanwhile in Minnesota, siblings Nate and Maggie are struggling to keep the family farm afloat after their parents' fatal car accident. An online job posting brings the three together, and Amanda finds herself living under the same roof as two twenty-somethings still struggling to come to terms with their grief.

While Amanda quickly befriends Maggie, winning over work-obsessed Nate is more complicated. He's too proud to admit he needs a farmhand's help and Amanda is wary of his temper as it triggers painful memories.

To make matters worse, Amanda feels an attraction to Nate that's hard to ignore. Will they ever be able to nurture their budding romance, or will their demons prove to be too much to overcome?

This is a standalone novel that contains explicit adult situations.
