The Volcano Dragon (Volume 1) E. L. Botha

Disaster tests a young dragon's heart. Edgar, a volcano dragon, has lived his whole life with his mother in their volcano. He loves to watch the people in the village below, but has never been allowed to interact with them. But as Edgar grows older, he begins to look at the laughing, playing village children in a new light and longs for a friend. Will Edgar find a way to make friends or will a disaster make that impossible? This delightful story of bravery and friendship will be enjoyed by parents and children age 2-10.
