Inside Kensington Palace Andrew Morton

This is a guide to the interior of Kensington Palace and the four royal households therein. It reveals intimate details of their everyday lives and how they behave when they think the world is not looking! The prince who sleeps with his teddy and the princess who likes to be seen by the "peasants" whilst driving are just two of the valuable pieces of information it contains. The author has been a Fleet Street royal correspondent for the last six years and has travelled extensively with members of the Royal Family. He has written "Duchess", a biography of the Duchess of York.
