Boat + Fishing Rod = Hook-up With The Love of My Life

I'm finally finished with four freezing years of university life and heading back home to the islands. Every mile I travel has me thinking more about the reason why I left and I wonder if he'll be there, my stepbrother.

We parted on odd terms, actually on no terms. I had to get away after our feelings for each became mutually obvious. I had to leave before my emotions got the best of me and maybe him.

I mean, what kind of life could I possibly have by staying? Living off of my parents as if I were a teenager, asking for money because my best skill was fishing and only if the wind blew in the right direction. Nope, not me. I was going somewhere, going to be someone better, going to get my head on straight, so I left.

What will I say when I see him? Can I stifle the feelings I had so many years ago, the love I know I couldn't control? What if he feels the same as he did then?

God help me, if things aren't different I fear I may get lost in the passion and give him my heart.
