Before you Love me, Love Letters to my Ex's is not your typical relationship book. This book gives insight on how to love others, by first loving yourself. Most of us have been someone's ex and can list numerous reasons as to why it did not work. However, if you stop and look at the root of the problem, often times, you will find one common denominator: You. This book breaks down the relationship process before you acknowledge, approach, date, court, and decide to love a woman enough to marry her. It also provides several examples of the right and wrong way to love someone according to God's word. In this book, you will also find the following: - Biblical examples to reference each phase of the relationship - Questions to ask yourself - Questions to ask her - Quick Comments on Do's and Don'ts in the relationship
