Sifting in Sand (Every Grain of Sand Book 4) Elisabeth Mayer

Recounting the torrid details of a first love that left her a single mom, Nikki Caulfield-Thompkins faces the demise of her perfect love with Jesse Sullivan. Recalling in vivid detail the thrill of their young love, the depths of their desire and the dark side of passion.

At a young age, the two held together to deal with challenges that would have torn others apart. Following a loss that makes them both grow up too quickly, they bond together as they finish their High School careers and head off to college.

New challenges and threats abound as the two live outside of the rules of their parents and indulge in the freedoms they are given. Experimentation, exceeding limitations and throwing caution to the wind, leave them with no where to go and their relationship slips through their fingers, like grains of sand.

Adult romance. Contains mature content. Ages 18+
