Through My Private Eyes is a compilation of true case stories from the files of a real life Private Investigator. Have you ever wondered what it is really like to be a private investigator? David Smaha, a licensed private investigator of twenty eight years makes it possible with this book. Smaha's storytelling style makes you feel as if you are working side by side with him in matters ranging from murder to prostitution to reuniting lost loves, corrupt cops and even courtroom drama. The mood from one case to another varies from suspenseful to comedic. This book defines the 'can't put it down' quality we all use to describe an engaging and entertaining read.
