Born to Kill A.K. Hoffman

How far would you go to clear your name if a famous criminal profiler called you a menace to society? When Matt Hamilton got a full scholarship to Stanford, he had one shot at clawing his way out of poverty. But when forensic psychologist Susan Witherell told America about the genotype shared by Matt and all convicted serial killers, he couldn't sit by and watch his dream turn to ashes. Now he's in prison, getting unwelcome attention from Witherell's first big profiling success story, the serial killer Jack Carlson. Matt just wants to be normal. Susan just wants attention for her discoveries. Jack just wants to share the "love" he received in his recent religious conversion. But three people this single-minded can't all get what they want.
