The world, as we know it, has come to an end. A pandemic has ravaged the land and the laws of science have, apparently, taken a holiday. Behind it all is a work of epic fantasy, whose fans are our only hope.

However, turning into elves, dwarves, and trolls is not quite what the fans, young and formerly old, had in mind before sprouting elvin ears, aging backward, becoming rather tall... or becoming rather strong for their size, which is good, because those that are now their favorite villains, seem rather intent on killing key characters and, of course, the author of the story.

Did I mention I'm the author they want to kill? Happen to be good with a sword? I can use people who are... Oh, really there aren't too many goblins, and the dragon seems rather nice...

Welcome to Double Dare, the latest novel from D.H. Aire, author of the Highmage's Plight Series, where character takes on new meaning and the author needs all the friends he can get.
